Executive Summary

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Solano Community College is committed to assuring student equity in all educational programs and College services (SCCD Policy 5355). We define student equity simply as that condition where, “all students enjoy the same right and access to education.”

The College serves 9,702 students (Fall 2013 census) at campuses in Fairfield, Vacaville, and Vallejo and in the surrounding communities including Travis Air Force Base, Winters, Dixon, and Benicia. The College provides programs and services to ensure that all students have the opportunity to succeed academically. The overarching equity goal at Solano Community College is to provide a teaching and learning environment that is welcoming, supportive, and accessible to all participants, regardless of ethnicity, culture, nationality, language, disability, gender, sexual orientation, or religion, and to ensure that all students have an equal opportunity for academic success.

The specific goals of the Student Equity Plan are:

1. To provide opportunities for increasing diversity and equity for all students at SCC.
2. To improve student access to SCC programs and services.
3. To close performance gaps for targeted groups, thereby improving the overall success of all students at Solano Community College.

This 2015-2019 Student Equity Plan is guided by the College’s Mission Statement wherein the commitment to student equity is inherent:

Solano Community College's mission is to educate a culturally and academically diverse student population drawn from our local communities and beyond. We are committed to helping our students achieve their educational, professional, and personal goals centered in basic skills education, workforce development and training, and transfer-level education. The College accomplishes this three-fold mission through its dedicated teaching, innovative programs, broad curricula, and services that are responsive to the complex needs of all students.

The SEP was written with contributions from faculty, staff, students, managers, and students. This 2015 update of Solano Community College’s 2014 Student Equity Plan is part of an ongoing institutional effort underway at Solano Community College District to improve proportional student academic outcomes and to more carefully and formally assess and evaluate student equity planning. The College recognizes that equity planning and assessment, as well as expansion of its data collection to further examine the academic needs of an increasingly diverse student population, is critical to the achievement of student equity and the fostering of academic excellence for all in our educational programs.

The Solano Community College Student Equity Committee has oversight for the development and implementation of this Student Equity Plan in accordance with SCCD Board Policy and Procedure 5355. This Committee is composed of faculty, staff, administration, and students. The Committee made recommendations to appropriate bodies regarding the College’s Student Equity Plan, along with a host of new student equity recommendations. The 2015-2019 Student Equity Plan was approved by the SCC Board of Trustees on December 16, 2015 in compliance with Title 5 guidelines in Section 54220.

A. Student Equity Indicators and Target Groups

We examined student equity at SCC in the context of the following Student Equity Indicators, as required by the CA Code of Regulations, Title 5, Section 54220 and the template provided by the California Community College Chancellor’s Office:

1. Access
2. Course Completion
3. ESL and Basic Skills Completion
4. Degree and Certificate Completion
5. Transfer

A. ACCESS. Compare the percentage of each population group that is enrolled to the percentage of each group in the adult population within the community served.

The goal is to improve access for the following target populations identified in the college research as experiencing a disproportionate impact:

Target Population(s)	Current gap, year	Goal	Goal Year
Males	-9.14% 2014	Reduce gap by 50%	2018
White	-8.43% 2014	Reduce gap by 50%	2018
Disabled Students	-7.58% 2014	Reduce gap by 50%	2018

ID	Target Group

Actions to achieve the goals include:

Focus Delivery of SSSP Services to Target Groups: Campus staff will develop and test new methods of delivering core Student Success and Support Program (SSSP) services—assessment, orientation, student education planning, and follow-up to students in order to increase access.

Increase High School and Community Outreach to Target Groups: Annually, campus staff, including the Student Services Generalists and Student Ambassadors, will work in coordination with our 13 feeder K-12 school districts and counseling staff to conduct visits to local high schools and community fairs/events with specific early outreach to identified student groups to disseminate materials on enrollment and matriculation requirements, financial aid, support services and provide other relevant matriculation information.

Specific outreach and course scheduling efforts to military base and prison populations: Efforts will include expanded marketing of programs, financial aid services, scholarships, veterans benefits, and raising aspiration levels for attending and completing college programs.

B. COURSE COMPLETION. The ratio of the number of credit courses that students, by population group, complete compared to the number of courses in which students in that group are enrolled on the census day of the term.

GOAL B.

The goal is to improve course completion for the following target populations identified in the college research as experiencing a disproportionate impact:

Target Population(s)	Current gap, year	Goal*	Goal Year
Foster Youth	-16.75	Reduce by 50%	2017
African American	-11.86	Reduce by 50%	2017

Actions to achieve these goals include:

Develop an Early Alert program: Identify an Early Alert tracking and intervention software and integrate the system. Provide professional development for faculty and staff to use the system and develop time lines for reporting by instructors and other staff. Develop a broad and deep referral process for appropriate intervention to support student successful behaviors and refer to intrusive interventions for less than successful course completion behaviors. Include direct academic support, including tutoring, counseling, career planning, writing lab, math lab, and learning community involvement.

Research course scheduling: Research the impacts of course availability, delivery, and sequencing and modify offerings to encourage completion to the next course toward program completion. This information will be shared with academic affairs for semester by semester tracking of class capacities and efficiency.

Provide instruction/learning support resources: Make textbooks available in the libraries at the various sites where courses are delivered, through items on reserve. Provide students with licenses for supplemental instruction resources, including math lab. Provide a laptop computer or Chromebook loan program to support course completion.

ESL AND BASIC SKILLS COMPLETION. The ratio of the number of students by population group who complete a degree-applicable course after having completed the final ESL or basic skills course compared to the number of those students who complete such a final ESL or basic skills course.

Upon reviewing the data and the small cell sizes in the ESL component, the committee determined that addressing the ESL component at the college in its entirety would be appropriate, rather than identify specific population cell disparity. The overall low completion rate was viewed as a symptom of a larger equity gap, than individual populations. The remaining areas, English Basic Skills and Math Basic Skills shared the same three populations for equity gaps. As a result, the committee viewed the Basic Skills progress again broader than the subject area alone and determined to address the issues in a broader context of equity and success. To address the gap measure below, an average gap in the two subject areas was created and the average number of students impacted in each of the two subject areas was calculated.

Target Population(s)	Current gap, year	Goal*	Goal Year
Example Group	-7, 2014	No gap	2020
Students with Disabilities	-20.29	Reduce gap by 50%	2018

DEGREE AND CERTIFICATE COMPLETION. The ratio of the number of students by population group who receive a degree or certificate to the number of students in that group with the same informed matriculation goal as documented in the student educational plan developed with a counselor/advisor.

Target Population(s)	Current gap, year	Goal*	Goal Year
Example Group	-4, 2014	No gap	2020

Males	-4.41	Reduce gap by 50%	2018

ID	Target Group(s)
D.1	Foster Youth
	Students with Disabilities
	Males

Actions to achieve these goals include:

Identify gate keeper courses: Research the college’s certificate and degree sequences to determine which courses impact the continued progress of students through the program of study. Identify what factors in each course or group of courses have the strongest impact on student success or lack of success.

Develop academic sequencing alignment: In cooperation with academic affairs and committees of the college, review course sequencing for certificates and degrees, to ensure availability. Develop stackable local certificates to build into state recognized certificates, and then into degree programs for completion.

Support Learning Communities: Provide support to the Umoja, Puente, First Year Experience, and Pre-law programs to assist with course completion, including the use of academic success coaches, tutoring, social and academic support services, peer support, role modeling, and community development.

Develop an Early Alert program: Identify an Early Alert tracking and intervention software and integrate the system. TRANSFER. The ratio of the number of students by population group who complete a minimum of 12 units and have attempted a transfer level course in mathematics or English, to the number of students in that group who actually transfer after one or more (up to six) years.

Example Group	-4, 2014	No gap	2020
Foster Youth	-32.26	No gap	2018
Students with Disabilities	-20.55	Reduce gap by 50%	2018
Nat. Amer./Pac. Islander	-5.7	Reduce gap by 50%	2018

	Target Group(s)
E.1	Foster Youth
	Students with Disabilities
	Nat. American/Pacific Islanders

Actions to achieve these goals include:

Create networks and pipelines for transfer: Develop stronger program to program relationships with university partners, identifying key contact people for supporting the transfer process, as well as developing transfer agreements.

Increase presence of transfer universities on campus: Bring universities on campus with greater frequency and link university visits to academic program activities, campus events, or target populations identified in the gap analysis.

Promote visits to universities: Have target populations visit regional universities and engage with their population at the university, addressing overcoming barriers to success and modeling further education.

Promote transfer options: Assist students with developing their admission and scholarship applications. Assist students with identifying their transfer university early in their academic career, to ensure enrollment in transferable units. Share personal success stories.

ACTIVITIES: F. ACTIVITIES AFFECTING SEVERAL GOALS

- Target Student Group(s) and Number of Each Affected*:

ID	Target Group	# of Students Affected
F.1	African American Students	2583
	Students with Disabilities	511
	Foster Youth	425
	Hispanic or Latino	3565
	Males	5723
	Low Income Students	4118

- Activity Implementation Plan

Early Alert: An early alert program would impact overall course completion, basic skills course completion, degree and certificate completion, and preparation for transfer. As an overall strategy, the program would have an impact on all populations identified in the Student Equity Plan.

Research: Additional surveys, data, or research are components of nearly every response to an identified need. Documentation of the impact, or lack thereof, is needed to determine the best use of resources to address inequities.

Professional development: A base of support and understanding is required for addressing the inequities found in the research. Faculty and staff are not fully aware of the issues regarding our students' success and how they can impact the identified student populations.

Learning Communities Leadership/Equity Oversight: Successful learning communities have been driven by committed individual faculty, absent any institution-wide coordination or support. With coordination, Learning Communities can share resources, activities, transportation, guest speakers, instructional support, and related activities to best serve students who have Equity gaps.

Academic and social support resources: Across the identified populations, students are not as successful, due to a lack of social and academic support resources. By providing information and campus linkages with resources, students are more likely to overcome the barriers affecting their lives, including addressing issues with financial aid, transportation, housing, mental health, and child care, among other factors.

Enrollment management: Course scheduling, including days, rooms, times, and locations have an impact on continued class participation. In addition, course sequencing and stacking certificates toward degrees are curricular challenges the college needs to research and address.

Planning Committee and Collaboration

PLANNING COMMITTEE AND COLLABORATION

With the addition of the two populations, Foster Youth and Veterans, the Institutional Research office was requested to generate a data report to reflect the additional populations to accurately reflect any equity gaps. The committee then met and reviewed the top three equity gaps identified in each area: Access, Course Completion, ESL and Basic Skills Completion, Degree and Certificate Completion, and Transfer. The committee then identified activities to address closing the gaps in each area. Committee members were then given an opportunity to identify the top priority activities for addressing the gaps in each area. The priorities were then included in the responses to the matching gap population and area.

The plan attempts to respond to current efforts to address disenfranchised students, who also are represented in the groups where equity gaps occur. These include students with learning and other disabilities, African American students, foster youth, and other populations identified in the data analysis. The Solano College Academic Senate has had multiple discussions regarding making the college at large aware of the inequities and has addressed their concerns through their appropriate communication channels. The Student Equity Plan and Budget attempts to address some of those concerns, as they coincide with the Equity goals for the college. The college Puente program has historically been a vehicle to ensure Equity gaps were met with the affected populations. This year, a loss of leadership has left the program in limbo. The college is concerned that absent stronger support for the program, Equity gaps will begin to occur. The college has incorporated the Puente program into the Equity plan, to ensure gains made over the years will not be lost. Rather than wait for a problem to arise, the college has chosen to take preventative action through the Student Equity Plan and Budget.

The plan and budget were developed based on the activities and the recent notification of the budget for the year. Some concerns were expressed regarding the delay in receiving the award from the Chancellor's Office and the lack of opportunity to fully engage in the dialogue needed for adequately integrating planning and budgeting. The timeline also had an impact on the collaborative process for reviewing and editing the document. Approval timelines dictated by Brown Act regulations for Academic Senate and Board of Trustees approval prevented a more robust discussion of the plan and budget. As a result, the Chair of the Committee promised to continue meeting with the Student Equity Committee and revise, within the scope of the plan, activities and budget expenditures, to most effectively meet the spirit of both the plan and the process.

CAMPUS-BASED RESEARCH: ACCESS

C. ACCESS. Compare the percentage of each population group that is enrolled to the percentage of each group in the adult population within the community served.

The tables in the plan present data using “Percentage Point Gap” for assessing disproportionate impact.

Target Population(s)	# of your college's total enrollment in Fall 2014 – Spring 2015	% of your college's total enrollment (proportion)	% of adult population within the community served (proportion)	Gain or loss in proportion (Percentage point difference with +/- added)*
Example Group		59%	64%	-6
American Indian / Alaska Native	180	1.28%	1.30%	-0.02%
Asian	2812	19.93%	15.60%	+4.33%
Black or African American	2583	18.31%	14.80%	+3.51%
Hispanic or Latino	3565	25.27%	21.00%	+4.27%
Native Hawaiian or other Pacific Islander	148	1.05%	1.00%	+0.05%
White	4398	31.17%	39.60%	-8.43%
Some other race	424	3.00%		+3.00%
More than one race			6.70%	-6.70%
Total of 8 cells above (Orange cells should = 100%)	14110	100%	100%
Males	5723	40.56%	49.70%	-9.14%
Females	8040	56.98%	50.30%	+6.68%
Unknown	347	2.46%		+2.46%
Total of 3 cells above (Orange cells should = 100%)	14110	100%	100%
Current or former foster youth	425	3.01%	0.06%	+2.95%
Individuals with disabilities	511	3.62%	11.20%	-7.58%
Low-income students	4118	29.18%	12.90%	+16.28%
Veterans	841	5.96%	8.11%	-2.15%

*Calculated by subtracting the % of the adult population within the community served from the % of your college's total enrollment – paying close attention to the +/- designation. Note: Because it would be confusing for positive values to represent a loss of proportion and negative values to represent a gain in proportion, the worksheet switches the order of the operation. Where the college's population is lower than the adult population, a negative value will result.

Increase High School and Community Outreach to Target Groups: Annually, campus staff, including the Student Services Generalists and Student Ambassadors, will work in coordination with our 13 feeder K-12 school districts and counseling staff to conduct visits to local high schools and community fairs/events with specific early outreach to students with disabilities groups to disseminate materials on enrollment and matriculation requirements, financial aid, support services and provide other relevant matriculation information.

Enhance Services to Students with Disabilities: Initiate a Learning Disabilities program for testing students for LD. Provide appropriate services and equipment in response to the needs identified, and provide support courses/workshops/outreach to students. Market the services to prospective students, including high school and veterans.

Success Indicator: Course Completion

CAMPUS-BASED RESEARCH: COURSE COMPLETION

COURSE COMPLETION. The ratio of the number of credit courses that students, by population group, complete compared to the number of courses in which students in that group are enrolled on the census day of the term. Calculate course completion rates by dividing:

Rate	Denominator	Numerator
Rate of Course Completion	The # of courses students enrolled in and were present in on census day in the base term.	The number of courses out of ← (the denominator) in which students earned an A, B, C, or credit in the goal term.

Target Population(s)	the # of courses students enrolled in & were present in on census day in base year	The # of courses in which students earned an A, B, C, or credit out of ←	The % of courses passed (earned A, B, C, or credit) out of the courses students enrolled in & were present in on census day in base year	Total (all student average) pass rate*	Comparison to the all student average (Percentage point difference with +/- added)*
Example Group	2567	1463	57%	71%	-14

Veterans	841	761	90.49%	72.40%	18.09%

*The all student average is proposed as the comparison point for all groups. Therefore, this rate would be written in all of the orange boxes and used to calculate the equity gap for each group (the last column on the right).

Calculated by subtracting the average rate of courses passed from the student group's rate of courses passed – paying close attention to the +/- designation. Note: Because it would be confusing for positive values to represent a gap and negative values to represent equal or higher success, the worksheet switches the order of the operation. Where a student group's success rate is lower than the average group's rate, a negative value will result.

*'-14' is calculated by subtracting 71 (the average student success rate) from 57 (the success rate of the example group). The '-' is added to signify that the example group's success rate is lower than the all student average. A '+' would indicate that a given group has greater success.

Research course scheduling: Research the impacts of course availability, delivery, and sequencing and modify offerings to encourage completion to the next course toward program completion. This information will be shared with academic affairs for semester by semester tracking of class capacities and efficiency.

Provide instruction/learning support resources: Make textbooks available in the libraries at the various sites where courses are delivered, through items on reserve. Provide students with licenses for supplemental instruction resources, including math lab. Provide a laptop computer or Chromebook loan program to support course completion.

Upon reviewing the data and the small cell sizes in the ESL component, the committee determined that addressing the ESL component at the college in its entirety would be appropriate, rather than identify specific population cell disparity. The overall low completion rate was viewed as a symptom of a larger equity gap, than individual populations. The remaining areas, English Basic Skills and Math Basic Skills shared the same three populations for equity gaps. As a result, the committee viewed the Basic Skills progress again broader than the subject area alone and determined to address the issues in a broader context of equity and success. To address the gap measure below, an average gap in the two subject areas was created and the average number of students impacted in each of the two subject areas was calculated.

*The all student average is proposed as the comparison point for all groups. Therefore, this rate would be written in all of the orange boxes and used to calculate the equity gap for each group (the last column on the right).

Calculated by subtracting the average (all student) rate from the student group's rate of degree or certificate completion—paying close attention to the +/- designation. Note: Because it would be confusing for positive values to represent a gap and negative values to represent equal or higher success, the worksheet switches the order of the operation. Where a student group's success rate is lower than the average group's rate, a negative value will result.

'-4' is calculated by subtracting 29 (the all student average success rate) from 33 (the success rate of the example group). The '-' is added to signify that the example group's success rate is lower than the all student average. A '+' would indicate that a given group has greater success.

Target Population(s)	Current gap, year	Goal*	Goal Year
Example Group	-4, 2014	No gap	2020
Foster Youth	-20.91	No gap	2018
Students with Disabilities	-4.69	No gap	2018
Males	-4.41	Reduce gap by 50%	2018

*Expressed as either a percentage or number

Benchmark goals are to be decided by the institution.

Identify gate keeper courses: Research the college's certificate and degree sequences to determine which courses impact the continued progress of students through the program of study. Identify what factors in each course or group of courses have the strongest impact on student success or lack of success.

Develop academic sequencing alignment: In cooperation with academic affairs and committees of the college, review course sequencing for certificates and degrees, to ensure availability. Develop stackable local certificates to build into state recognized certificates, and then into degree programs for completion.

Support Learning Communities: Provide support to the Umoja, Puente, First Year Experience, and Pre-law programs to assist with course completion, including the use of academic success coaches, tutoring, social and academic support services, peer support, role modeling, and community development.

Develop an Early Alert program: Identify an Early Alert tracking and intervention software and integrate the system. Provide professional development for faculty and staff to use the system and develop time lines for reporting by instructors and other staff. Develop a broad and deep referral process for appropriate intervention to support student successful behaviors and refer to intrusive interventions for less than successful course completion behaviors. Include direct academic support, including tutoring, counseling, career planning, writing lab, math lab, and learning community involvement.

Provide instruction/learning support resources: Make textbooks available in the libraries at the various sites where courses are delivered, through items on reserve. Provide students with licenses for supplemental instruction resources, including math lab. Provide a laptop computer or Chromebook loan program to support course completion.

Faculty training/mentoring program: Develop faculty mentors to assist with early intervention, referral to support programs and activities, role modeling for success, career information, and personal support for overcoming barriers to successful course completion.

E. TRANSFER. The ratio of the number of students by population group who complete a minimum of 12 units and have attempted a transfer level course in mathematics or English, to the number of students in that group who actually transfer after one or more (up to six) years. Create networks and pipelines for transfer: Develop stronger program to program relationships with university partners, identifying key contact people for supporting the transfer process, as well as developing transfer agreements.

Increase presence of transfer universities on campus: Bring universities on campus with greater frequency and link university visits to academic program activities, campus events, or target populations identified in the gap analysis.

Promote visits to universities: Have target populations visit regional universities and engage with their population at the university, addressing overcoming barriers to success and modeling further education. Visits will include out of state Historically Black Colleges and Universities.

Promote transfer options: Assist students with developing their admission and scholarship applications. Assist students with identifying their transfer university early in their academic career, to ensure enrollment in transferable units. Share personal success stories.

- Activity Implementation Plan

Early Alert: An early alert program would impact overall course completion, basic skills course completion, degree and certificate completion, and preparation for transfer. As an overall strategy, the program would have an impact on all populations identified in the Student Equity Plan.

Research: Additional surveys, data, or research are components of nearly every response to an identified need. Documentation of the impact, or lack thereof, is needed to determine the best use of resources to address inequities.

Professional development: A base of support and understanding is required for addressing the inequities found in the research. Faculty and staff are not fully aware of the issues regarding our students' success and how they can impact the identified student populations.

Learning Communities Leadership/Equity Oversight: Successful learning communities have been driven by committed individual faculty, absent any institution-wide coordination or support. With coordination, Learning Communities can share resources, activities, transportation, guest speakers, instructional support, and related activities to best serve students who have Equity gaps.

Academic and social support resources: Across the identified populations, students are not as successful, due to a lack of social and academic support resources. By providing information and campus linkages with resources, students are more likely to overcome the barriers affecting their lives, including addressing issues with financial aid, transportation, housing, mental health, and child care, among other factors.

Enrollment management: Course scheduling, including days, rooms, times, and locations have an impact on continued class participation. In addition, course sequencing and stacking certificates toward degrees are curricular challenges the college needs to research and address.

- Link to Goal

The activities identified cross over multiple populations and programs and address institutional responses to inequities.

- Evaluation

In July, an annual report of activities and measures from each of the areas will be created and shared with the college community and Board of Trustees.

Summary Evaluation

SUMMARY EVALUATION SCHEDULE AND PROCESS

Evaluation will consist of an annual review cycle involving two components. The first component will be to evaluate the actual results in implementing all proposed activities. The purpose of this evaluation component is to ensure that all aspects of the plan are being implemented. On an annual basis, individuals responsible for each planned activity will submit a report to the Student Equity Coordinator pertaining to activity results, any barriers to carrying out the activities, and a plan to address barriers.

The second part of the evaluation focuses on assessing the student equity gaps of the SEP for the five areas examined. The assessment data will become part of an annual report to the college, allowing the widest dissemination to the campus community and to the public. The Student Equity Committee will review the data, update the Plan, and submit it to the campus community and Board of Trustees for approval annually and/or as needed.
