Do you know.....

Solano College has a partnership with Sonoma State?
Would you like to earn a B.A. in Liberal Studies?

Sonoma State University offers an upper-division program in Vallejo, California leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies. The Liberal Studies Solano program offers a wide variety of courses from the social sciences, humanities, and natural sciences while providing a flexible major through which students may also take courses in other areas of interest. Like more traditional liberal arts majors, the Liberal Studies Solano major is excellent preparation for students interested in a career in teaching or counseling, the legal profession, or business as well as graduate work in the social sciences and the humanities.

Campus Sheriff's Office

Crime Beat

Cell Phone Thief Caught!! – In the March 1, 2017, ASSC Newsletter Campus Sheriff's Office reported an unknown male suspect stole a cell phone from a student after asking her to use it. He and another unknown suspect ran off with the victim's phone and they both got in a nearby getaway car in Parking Lot #3. The vehicle fled the area in an unknown direction. The incident occurred on February 24, 2017.

On March 10, 2017, Campus Sheriff's Office personnel were monitoring security cameras and noticed the same two suspects had returned to the Fairfield campus and was in cafeteria area. Deputies responded to area and contacted the subjects as they were trying to leave the area. The suspects were identified and one of them admitted to taking the victim's phone because, "He needed spending money." These two suspects were not students here and were served with our trespass letters not to come back on campus or they will be arrested for trespassing. These two suspects will now have to appear in court and answer for their crime!

Campus Sheriff's Office will not tolerate anyone praying on our students, faculty, contractors or visitors!!

Domestic Violence Incident – March 9, 2017, a female student victim was physically assaulted by her ex-boyfriend (non-student) in the Vacaville Center parking lot. The 19-year-old male suspect was not happy with the break up and was trying to get the victim to come back to him. When she refused he assaulted her and held her against her will in her own vehicle. The victim was able to escape and asked a nearby witness to call "911." Campus Sheriff's Office and Vacaville Police Officers responded to the scene and began their investigation. After interviewing all parties involved, Campus Sheriff's Office arrested the male suspect and charged him with domestic violence and other charges. He was subsequently transported to the County Jail where he was booked for the offenses.

Crime Beat Tips

- ✓ You should not give your cell phone to strangers to use. The above incident can and will happen to your cell phone if the stranger decides to take off with it. If they need to use the phone, advise them to contact a faculty member to see if the faculty member could allow them to use the school phone instead.
- ✓ Campus Sheriff's Office will be organizing "Dating Violence" workshops on all campuses in the near future. In the meantime, please visit our website at <http://www.solano.edu/police/safetyaware.php> for more information on domestic, sexual violence and other useful information/tips.
- ✓ If you are working or studying late, arrange to leave with a friend or call Campus Sheriff's Office at 707-580-6526 (Fairfield Campus), 707-580-4936 (Vallejo Center) or 707-580-6054 (Vacaville Center) for Safety Escort assistance.
- ✓ And always, if you see anything or anyone that is acting suspicious, contact the Campus Sheriff's Office in Building 1800 B or call us at (707) 864-7131.
