COMMUNITY COLLEGE PATHWAY TO LAW SCHOOL INITIATIVE (CCPLS)

The Community College Pathway to Law School (CCPLS) Initiative is the first and only of its kind to provide a clear pathway from community college to law school.

The CCPLS Initiative is the product of the visionary leadership of the California State Bar's Council on Access and Fairness (COAF). As a participating institution in the initiative, Solano Community College (SCC) has developed special partnerships with six top rated undergraduate and law school programs: UC Davis, UC Irvine, USF, Santa Clara University, Loyola Marymount and USC. Students taking part in the CCPLS program and successfully completing the initiative will be eligible to take advantage of these partnerships towards the goal of achieving a legal education.

Students apply to participate in the program. Upon admittance to the program participating students will be identified as "CCPLS / COAF Scholars" and must complete a seven (7) course core sequence and participate in activities sponsored by the CCPLS Initiative.

The curriculum and law related events build necessary skills to increase competitiveness at the next level of academia.

Upon successful completion of the undergraduate program CCPLS / COAF scholars will be eligible for admission to one of the law school programs partnering with the initiative.

For information on the Community College
Pathway to Law School Initiative,
