Course descriptions below

EMT 128 – Emergency Medical Responder

Provides the student with the basic emergency care procedures for sick and injured victims as a first responder including but not limited to: cuts, abrasions, broken bones, trauma injuries, burns and respiratory/cardiovascular emergencies.

EMT 128 is a prerequisite for EMT 112 - Emergency Medical Technician (Basic) and FIRE 140 – Fire Technology Academy

Please note that EMT is certificate-only program and no degree is offered. As such, there is no general education requirement. Students may enroll in the 7 unit EMT 112 – Emergency Medical Technician (Basic) course after successfully completing EMT 128.
