

“The Peace Corps”

By

Professor Corrine Kirkbride

Thursday, March 10, 2011

11:00AM - 12: 15PM

The Board Room 626

Corrine Kirkbride served in the Peace Corps two years in the island nation of Vanuatu in the South Pacific after graduating from UC Santa Barbara. She has earned an MA in Mathematics and a Master of Arts in Teaching Mathematics (MAT) at UC Davis. She is currently a full-time math instructor at Solano Community College.

The Ethnic Studies Program is sponsoring this event. It is being sponsored by Dr. Karen McCord, Dr. Brenda Tucker, Solano Community College’s Umoja Learning Community, Umoja Club, Peace Club and the Associated Students.

“Support for Survivors”

By

Ms. Claudia Humphrey

Tuesday, March 15th, 2011

11:00AM - 12:15PM

The Board Room 626

Claudia Humphrey is the Executive Director of LIFT3. LIFT3 is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that offers direct services to victims of domestic violence in Solano County. LIFT3 provides crisis shelter for individuals in crisis and transitional shelter for those who are ready to transition to a more permanent and safe living environment. The mission of LIFT3 is to eradicate the effects of abuse grounded in the misuse of power and control fortified by intimidation and coercion by providing safe shelter, supportive services and systematic support.

The Ethnic Studies Program is sponsoring this event, which is being co-sponsored by Dr. Karen McCord, Dr. Brenda Tucker, Solano Community College’s Umoja Learning Community, Umoja Club, The Peace Club and the Associated Students.

Website: <http://www.lift3supportgroup.com>

“When We Were Colored, A Mother's Story”

By

Mrs. Eva Rutland

Tuesday, March 22, 2011

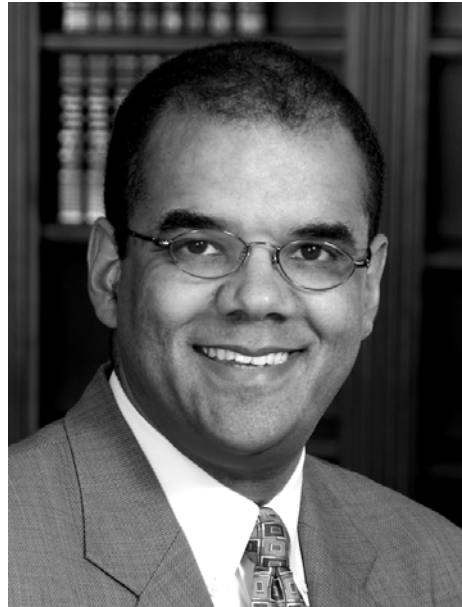

11:00AM-12:15PM

The Board Room

Mrs. Eva Rutland is an author of more than twenty novels and winner of the 2000 Golden Pen Award for Lifetime Achievement. She has written plays, radio scripts, a musical and more than a dozen romances for Harlequin. Mrs. Rutland is over 80 years old and has been blind throughout most of her writing career. She was born in Atlanta Georgia where she attended segregated schools all her life and graduated from Spelman College in 1937. Her book, “When We Were Colored, A Mother’s Story” was first published in 1964.

The Ethnic Studies Program is sponsoring this event, which is being co-sponsored by Dr. Karen McCord, Dr. Brenda Tucker, Solano Community College’s Umoja Learning Community, Umoja Club and the Associated Students.

“Criminal Offense Defender”

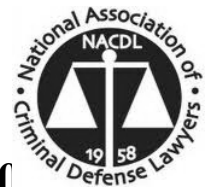

Attorney Dustin D. Johnson

Thursday, March 24th, 2011

10:00AM-11:00AM

Back Of The Cafeteria Building 140C

Mr. Johnson’s presentation will cover how to expunge your record and employment options for those convicted of misdemeanors and felonies. He will also provide useful information and strategies to avoid legal issues.

Mr. Dustin D. Johnson began his practice in 2004 at Perry and Associates in Modesto, CA. Later on joined the legal staff at the Yolo County Public Defender’s office. As an public defender he handled all criminal offenses (including juvenile delinquency), whether charged as misdemeanors or felonies, including domestic violence, drug charges, gang charges or federal white collar crimes. Mr. Johnson is currently in private practice and his office is located in Sacramento. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the Los Rios Community College District. Mr. Johnson has obtained a B.A in Government from CSU Sacramento and a J.D from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law.

The Ethnic Studies Program is sponsoring this event, which is being co-sponsored by Dr. Karen McCord, Dr. Brenda Tucker, Solano Community College’s Umoja Learning Community, Umoja Club, The Peace Club, The Ethnic Minority Coalition and the Associated Students.

03/02/11msc

Approved by the ASSC