

Tidbits from the CCCCC SCFF July 2018 Simulation

- SCC has 0.704% of the statewide base allocation
 - But only 0.575% of the supplemental allocation, indicating a lesser use of Pell grants, Promise grants, and AB 540 students. This implies a District of greater affluence than the state average.
 - 0.735% of the student success allocation, implying greater than average student success
- Base allocation of 0.704% areas of strength and opportunity
 - SCC is close to the state average in credit classes
 - We are well below average in non-credit classes
 - SCC is stronger than average in special admit and inmate education
- The supplemental grant, where SCC's 0.575% of the state average is below the state average, areas of strength and opportunity
 - SCC is slightly below the state average for AB540 and promise grants, but well below average in Pell grants
- For the student success grant, SCC's accomplishments compare to the state average as follows:
