Answers to Specific Questions:

1. Regarding Section III.B.4: Would the District waive, postpone or modify the requirement to include a listing of all lawsuits?
Answer: The District will not waive the requirement of a listing all lawsuits or litigation. Furthermore, the list will include all litigation matters, regardless of location, whether in California or in other states. However, this comprehensive list may be submitted in a separate envelope and will be considered proprietary information.

2. Regarding Section II.A paragraph 2: The paragraph references "Attachment A." Was the reference meant to be "Appendix A?"
Answer: Yes.

3. What are the limits of insurance?
Answer: $4M aggregate/$2M per occurrence

4. Section III.A paragraph 1: Please clarify the page count.
Answer: The page count is 30 pages, double sided. This means that the SOQ may include 60 pages of material (or 60 printed sides).

5. Will the District accept experience that was performed by staff while employed at another firm?
Answer: Yes, so long as the project is identified explicitly and the specific role of the individual is made clear in the SOQ. The District is most interested in understanding the qualifications of the individuals that will be performing the work.
