

The Solano College Office of Admissions and Records is introducing

A new method of student identification

A Personal SCC
Student Identification
Number
(SCCID)
for use only at Solano College

Official Effective Date
November 20th, 2006
(1st day of Spring 2007 Registration)

You may begin using your SCCID
immediately upon receipt of it

How will you find out what your SCCID is?

- ◆ Shortly after the start of the Fall semester we will send your SCCID to the address you have on file with the Office of Admission & Records
 - ◆ New and returning students will receive their SCCID by mail after applying for admission using their SSN

- ◆ The SCCID is an added layer of security against identity theft and meets the requirements of SB25
- ◆ SCC will no longer use your Social Security number (SSN) as a primary student identifier

- ◆ All Solano Community College students have been assigned a unique 9-digit number that will begin with '000'
 - ◆ Memorize and guard your new SCCID number as you would your Social Security Number

Use it on...

- ◆ All correspondence forms involving admission, registration and counseling at the SCC Main Campus and at the Vallejo and Vacaville Centers

Are you a Financial Aid Recipient?

- ◆ Applying for Financial Aid/FAFSA?
 - ◆ CAL GRANTS?
 - ◆ Student Loans?
 - ◆ Scholarships?
- A stylized teal silhouette of a mountain range is located in the bottom right corner of the slide.

- ◆ Federal regulations require your SSN for these purposes
- ◆ Failure to provide your social security number may further delay your receipt of financial aid
