

STAYING COMMITTED AND CONNECTED

September 3, 2019

Scholarships Available

Scholarship applications are still being accepted for the Fall Semester.

Don't lose out! Every year scholarship money is left on the table because not enough students apply. Scholarships are a great way to help pay for college, and many of these opportunities offer more than one award!

Professional Development Funding

The Professional Development/Flexible Calendar Committee encourages faculty and staff to consider professional development funding for appropriate activities. Below are several recent funding requests that were approved by the Committee:

- Ruth Fuller is attending the Strengthening Student Success Conference from October 9-11, 2019
- Patricia Young is participating in the 2019 Annual Mountain Pacific Association of Colleges and Employers from December 11-13, 2019

For information on the application process, please see the Professional Development website or contact the PDFC Committee at PDFC@solano.edu.

SCC Student Debuts Film This Weekend

A film by Indica DeRose will be featured in the Benicia Film Festival, Saturday, Sept. 7, 2019.
(Aaron Rosenblatt/Daily Republic)

SCC film student Indica DeRose views the world from a different vantage point. The teen, who finished high school early, will make her second appearance at next weekend's Benicia Film Festival.

Her film, "Just Girly Things," was inspired by a 1950s-era publication "Who's Looking at You?" that offered advice on how to look one's best and attract a husband. She found it in a Benicia antique store and began to peruse it, coming up with an idea for a film. The first three minutes is light, she said. Then, the film takes a dark turn.

Volleyball: The Solano women's volleyball team cruised to wins over Gavilan, 3-1, and Siskiyous, 3-0, on Friday afternoon to open the Solano Classic #1.

Against Gavilan, scores were 25-23, 22-25, 26-24, 27-25. And set scores were 25-11, 25-16, 25-18 against Siskiyous.

Sophomore Haley del Rio and freshman Lindsey

McLaughlin combined for 36 of the team's total 51 kills against Gavilan. McLaughlin was errorless hitting out of the middle with 14 kills on 19 attempts (.737), adding five total blocks, four solo, and three service aces. del Rio added her second double-double of the season with a team-high 17 digs.

Despite another double-double performance by sophomore Haley del Rio, the Falcons fell in the Solano Classic #1 finale to Feather River in four on Saturday afternoon. Set scores were 25-18, 25-21, 20-25, 25-17.

Women's Soccer: Freshman Keana Flynn netted a pair of goals in the Solano women's soccer team's 2-2 push with Cosumnes River on Friday afternoon in the Falcons' home opener.

Flynn gave the Falcons the early lead off an assist from sophomore Melinda Rashidian before Cosumnes River tied the match heading into halftime. Solano broke the stalemate in the 59th minute on Flynn's second goal, assisted by sophomore Karla Cardinal. But the Hawks equalized the match with about 15 minutes remaining.

Sophomore keeper Kirstyn Gotschall counted four saves.

The Falcons (0-0-2) resume action on Tuesday, Sept. 3 at Ohlone. Match time is set for 4 p.m.
