8. Information/Discussion Items
8.1 Fall Professional Development	The committee discussed potential theme/topics for the upcoming Spring Professional Development: (a) emphasis on Equity requested by VP David Williams, (b) “What is Connecting Us,” (c) equity in curriculum, and (d) Guided Pathway connection.
8.2 Staff PD	D. Gonzalez, J. Leary, and S. Gorospe-Kaushal will reach out to CSEA to inquire what session(s) would be of interest to staff with a survey to be presented at the next meeting for review. A statement on PD for Staff” will be created for the Professional Development website.

8.3 Spring Professional Development Planning

The following items were discussed as possible topics during the upcoming Spring 2021 Professional Development: (a) "Mind, Body, and Soul" a combination of sessions from Psychology, Kinesiology, and Art/Music departments, and (b) books such as "The Undocumented Americans" (DACA), "There, There" (native heritage), and "One Person, No Vote."

The committee considered the advantages of recording Zoom sessions during Professional Development, which would allow SCC faculty/staff opportunity to watch recordings. The PDFC voted to approved watching recordings as Flex credit for faculty. This item will be presented to Academic Senate for consideration

On Course will not be part of Spring 2021 Professional Development events.

The committee reviewed offering OneBook presentation. However, the committee agreed to table this offering until Fall 2021.
