When clicking on a shared network drive, you will receive the following popup window below. Click on “Use another account” (the second option).

Then enter your username and password. Remember to put “NTNET\” in front of your username. Then click OK. Your drive should open.