Sociology

Program Description
Sociology is the study of society and human behavior. Students who obtain a degree in Sociology gain a fundamental understanding of culture, socialization, inequality, racial and ethnic relations, sex roles, deviance, social issues and problems, and the distribution of political and economic power. Sociology students prepare themselves for a job in the field of business, health, education, criminal justice, government/law, or social service, and a variety of other areas.

Associate in Arts Degree
The Associate in Arts Degree can be obtained by completing a total of 60 units, including the 18 - 19-unit major, general education requirements and electives. The 18 - 19-unit major is composed of courses selected from the three (3) subject areas shown below. All courses for this major must be completed with a grade of C or better or a P if the course is taken on a Pass/No Pass basis.

Program Outcomes
Students who complete an Associate Degree will be able to:
1. Have a basic knowledge of the history of the development of sociology as a separate discipline.
2. Become more aware of cultural, social, political, environmental, and economic forces within the world they live.
3. Critically think, in addition to increase reading, writing and basic research skills.
