b) The general and automobile liability policies (and if applicable, pollution liability, garage keepers liability and builder's risk policies) are to contain, or be endorsed to contain, the following provisions:

v) Each insurance policy required by this clause shall be endorsed to state that coverage shall not be suspended, voided, canceled by either party, reduced in coverage or in limits except after thirty (30) days' prior written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, has been given to the CITY.

The endorsements are to be on forms provided by the CITY or on forms equivalent to CG 20 10 11 85 subject to CITY approval. All insurance certificates and endorsements are to be received and approved by the CITY before work commences. At the request of the CITY, CONSULTANT shall provide complete, certified copies of all required insurance policies, including endorsements effecting the coverage required by these specifications.
e) SUB-CONTRACTORS. CONSULTANT shall require all subcontractors to procure and maintain insurance policies subject to the requirements of Exhibit D. Failure of CONSULTANT to verify existence of sub-contractor's insurance shall not relieve CONSULTANT from any claim arising from sub-contractors work on behalf of CONSULTANT.

REQUESTED ACTION: INFORMATION

SUMMARY:

Andrew Young Global Center of Vallejo (AYGCV) is a community-inclusive, youth-focused initiative aimed at developing a future workforce, which not only possesses market-relevant skills, but is engendered with a sense of social responsibility necessary to ensure the socioeconomic growth and well-being of the communities of Vallejo, California.

COMMUNITY STAKEHOLDER BRIEFING:

ANDREW YOUNG GLOBAL CENTER OF VALLEJO
DEDICATED TO ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

VISION AND BENEFIT TO COMMUNITY:
AIDING IN THE PROCESS OF RESURGENCE, REINVENTION, AND ECONOMIC GROWTH

Andrew Young Global Center of Vallejo (AYGCV) is a community-inclusive, youth-focused initiative aimed at developing a future workforce which not only possesses market-relevant skills but is engendered with a sense of social responsibility necessary to ensure the socioeconomic growth and well-being of the communities of Vallejo, California.

AYGCV builds from the lessons and legacy of Ambassador Andrew Young as a life-long advocate for civil rights and inclusive economic development, while leveraging efforts by local public officials, civic and business leaders, and residents to rebuild the area and restore public trust. Education is a centerpiece of that strategy and the AYGCV vision aligns with community efforts.

Our goal is to develop a dynamic partnership that succeeds in nurturing youth who earn high school diplomas, enter and graduate college, or fill and create high-growth jobs. Our broader vision is a partnership that succeeds in nurturing youth who see themselves as change agents in a larger, global effort for peace, prosperity, diversity, and inclusion.

FRAMEWORK AND PROGRAMMATIC ELEMENTS:
AUGMENTING THE WALL-TO-WALL ACADEMIES, BUSINESSES, AND LOCAL COMMUNITIES

The AYGCV employs a holistic, user-centered model to reach, engage and support students, teachers and administrators in the district’s recently established Wall-to-Wall (W2W) academies. W2W, built around a college-career pathway, represents an innovative model of how to develop human and intellectual capital to address community needs. However, if communities are to remain competitive in an ever-changing global market, then both businesses and schools must be able to collaborate with interventions to address those changes. AYGCV helps to fill that gap by offering a suite of activities in three core areas:

- Student Development, including academic enrichment, mentoring, tutoring, leadership development, college and career exposure, internships and similar experiential learning.
- Curricular and Co-Curricular Development in the sciences, engineering, education, health, information technology, digital media, and other disciplines that complement the theme of the host W2W academy, while working with business, industry and local colleges to explore tracks that would be critical for near- and long-term career and college readiness.
- Educators, Community Partners, Business Leaders, and Administrative Staff Professional Development, providing these critical groups with an accessible and robust training vehicle to explore strategies to reach, engage, and graduate students based on positive reinforcement, as well as to increase staff abilities to provide sound management and responsible fiscal oversight.
UNIQUENESS OF DESIGN:
INTEGRATING ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT AND SKILLS TRAINING WITH SOCIAL JUSTICE
Integrated into each of AYGCV’s core activities is a sustained focus on social justice. By social justice, we are referring to the active and conscious decision to promote a just society by challenging unfair and unequal treatment and distribution of resources, valuing diversity, and promoting inclusion. Social Justice has and continues to be a defining characteristic and principle of the Andrew Young Foundation and this philosophy will be integrated into all activities under the AYGCV effort.

Working with school district officials and other community stakeholders, AYGCV will devise training to allow teachers to explore ways to integrate issues of social justice in their courses and allow students to explore the theory and practice of social justice in how they view and carry themselves, engage others, and serve as change agents for community transformation and growth. Activities will be implemented locally, as well as at the Andrew Young Foundation and at historic sites in the city of Atlanta where the Andrew Young Foundation is located. These sites include, but are not limited to, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change and the newly established National Center for Civil & Human Rights.

PROGRAM PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT
AYGCV is a 10-year initiative with a Phase I component to support program planning and infrastructure development. A planning team, to be comprised of a representative cross-section of community stakeholders, will lead Phase I efforts.

The planning team will be led by Andrea Young, Esq., Executive Director of Andrew Young Foundation, in partnership with Dr. Melvinia Turner King, Chief Executive Officer of MTK & Associates. Ms. Young brings a wealth of experience and expertise as an attorney advocating civil and human rights, college instructor, scholar and author, while Dr. King leverages her past experiences as a local business owner in Vallejo, Oakland and Los Angeles and her role in building global interdisciplinary programs at the Atlanta, Georgia-based Morehouse College and the University of San Francisco.

NEXT STEPS
We seek to engage the community to elicit comments and observations about the plan and to include those perspectives in the planning document. We are also using these opportunities to identify individuals who might participate in a Stakeholder retreat to develop the framework for a Strategic Plan, inclusive of critical program details, benchmarks, timeline and required resources.
