VI. ADVISOR'S REPORT

A. Terri Martin

- a. A list of all the clubs that turned in their forms has been created and passed around to make sure contact information is correct. If any errors please let terri know so she can fix it.
- b. VP Neely has mentioned that she has seen several flyers for activities that havent followed official protocol so clubs please do a room reservation, then activity request form, and then clubs can promote the event around campus.
- c. Currently working to get all the club information updated on the school website.

VII. GUEST SPEAKER

VIII. INFORMATION/ACTION ITEMS

A. College Hour Discussion

- a. Human Collective stated that college hour seems like a good idea and a good vibe, its seems like a good way to involve and get students to participate in events they usually don't attend. It sheds a light on events and the school.

- b. Dance Club likes the idea but not the time of 12-2pm, students rather take morning or afternoon classes to have free evenings so this seems like it would affect it. Proposed having it once a week maybe on a Friday.
- c. Clubs showed concern about the time choice. To be brought up to the Academic Senate.
- d. Intervarsity disagreed with the choice of Friday since there is not many students on campus and students won't show up.
- e. FASU believes this will increase student engagement.
- f. Terri mentioned how college hour could be on different days every week.

B. Student Life Discussion

- a. Clubs liked the update of the student life survey
- b. No suggestions or concerns
- c. Chair Solis mentioned that students who show interest in leadership positions will receive an email with club descriptions and biographies so students can know their options and will promote membership.
- d. No due date is set yet for Student Life Survey

C. Halloween Bash

- a. Halloween Bash will be Oct 21st 6pm to 9pm in the 1400 bldg, clubs are encouraged to help by setting up or participating in the event itself.
- b. Helping in the event counts as collaborating with the ASSC.
- c. Terri passed a paper around for clubs who were interested in helping.
 - i. Dance club wants to showcase a choreography
