Saturday Hybrid B.A. Liberal Studies at Sonoma State University

The Saturday Hybrid degree completion program will help you complete your Liberal Studies B.A. degree while allowing flexibility for other endeavors. Commit to just 4-5 Saturdays per semester (9am - 4:30pm on the SSU campus), and complete work online in between through discussion within a small cohort of fellow learners. This program uniquely focuses on learning through dialogue, after reading, and develops skills applicable to all future work and academic pursuits. Graduates are eligible to apply for the CSET Multiple Subjects Exam waiver.

B.A. Liberal Studies Degree Completion at North Bay Community Colleges

The Liberal Studies degree completion program offers a strategically planned curriculum. Students graduate with a broad and flexible skillset, applicable to a variety of contexts as well as improved analytical, critical thinking in addition to strong verbal and oral communication skills.

Our program is designed to support students who are otherwise busy during the day; offering courses on the evenings and weekends. A mix of in-person and online courses with esteemed SSU professors, this program sets our students up for success. Graduates are eligible to apply for the CSET Multiple Subjects Exam waiver.

B.S. Business Degree Completion at North Bay Community Colleges

The Business Administration degree completion program is geared for working adults with courses offered in the evenings and online. Right now we provide a concentration in management, however our required courses for the major cover a wide range of business topics such as marketing, finance, human resources, etc.

The business degree completion program is Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) accredited and we have high-quality professors who are research-based faculty. Once you complete this program, you will have a recognizable degree that you can place on your resume for a future dream career or promotion.
