About Pamela Price

Pamela Y. Price graduated from Yale University with a B.A. in Political Science in 1978. She came to California where she attended Boalt Hall School of Law and received her J.D. and an M.A. degree in Jurisprudence & Social Policy in 1982. She was admitted to practice law in California in 1983. She is a survivor of the Ohio juvenile justice and foster care systems.

In 1977, Price joined the landmark case of Alexander (Price) v. Yale, 459 F.Supp. 1 (D.Conn. 1979), 631 F.2d 178 (2nd Cir. 1980), the first case to challenge sexual harassment as a form of sex discrimination in education. The Court's dismissed all five other plaintiffs and Price was the only plaintiff to proceed to trial in January 1979, in the U.S. District Court in New Haven, Connecticut. In June 1979, the Court rendered a verdict in favor of Yale. In September 1980, the Second Circuit affirmed the District Court's decision in favor of Yale. Nonetheless, the case established that sexual harassment in education constitutes illegal sex discrimination.
