VIII. INFORMATION ITEMS

- A. Club Funding Presentations
- a. Art club, presented by President Mikaela and Vice President Yadira. They request funding for art supplies, field trips, and spring events.

Funding Requests

Art Supplies	Field Trip	Spring Events	Overall Budget
$235.99	$1420	$387.44	$2043.43

- b. International Society of Pharmaceutical Engineering Club, presented by Secretary Christine. Currently, there are 20 members. Membership of $29 is needed for members who want to join conferences. ISPE will be attending conferences in San Francisco and Boston.

Funding Request

Membership fees	Meeting Refreshments	Conferences	Travel and Lodging	Overall
$290	$700	$1500	$5,100	$7590

- c. Human Collective Club, presented by President Reigh and Vice President Delfa. The club is rooted in community service, building, and involvement. Their club is planning a Sound Bowl Meditation Event where students can relax together.

Funding Request

Instructor	Food and Refreshments	Overall
$200	$200	$400

- d. Pre-Med Club, presented by Caitlin. They request funding for an event and medical mission. The event is for CPR certification. This is recommended because many medical jobs require cpr certifications. For a medical mission, they plan to send 2 students to go to Costa Rica. It is beneficial because it helps pre-med students receive clinical experience for medical and nursing school admissions.

Funding Request

CPR Event	Medical Mission Flight and Expenses	Overall
$900	$6060	$6960

B. ASSC Open House Events update.

- a. President Jedi was able to visit the Vacaville Campus. It mostly centers around Biotech. There are outdated vending machines and a need for tutors. ASSC is thinking of using the gym for Open House Events at the end of November - although this may interfere with conferences and exams. The committee will have a meeting to decide for the supplies needed in Vacaville Campus.

- C. Civic Engagement Report.
  - a. Presented by AJ Matthews. ASSC received their scores for the ballot poll. We scored 166/234. The best areas were leadership, executive summary, goals, meeting all six sections in the template, and turning information in on time. This is a good roadmap for next semester and the upcoming years. For anyone who is the next Legislative Advocate, they can have a game plan on what to do for similar events. Rooms for improvement: expanding partnerships, communication with faculty and Region 2 colleges, and strengthening the task force.
