

STAYING COMMITTED AND CONNECTED
2018

MARCH 5,

SCC Alumni Association Raises Money at Crab Feed

The Solano Community College Alumni Association hosted its Crab & Shrimp Feed Saturday evening in the Student Center on the main campus.

Besides food, patrons enjoyed entertainment by Captain Bob's Dive Bar, featuring music by the Raymond Victor Band, a well-known Solano County-based jazz and blues band.

A no-host bar featured frozen margaritas, piña coladas, microbrews on tap from Heretic Brewing Company, and Suisun Valley wines. A silent auction included fine desserts.

The crab, according to Curt Johnston, director of the SCC Educational Foundation, came from Pezzolo Seafood of San Francisco.

Established last year, the Crab & Shrimp Feed is a way “to invite the community into the college and create an opportunity for faculty and staff to interact with the public and SCC alumni and friends,” according to Johnson.

“In this context,” added Johnston, “this event is all about having a fun evening and enjoying each other’s company. But it’s also an opportunity to support the formation of the alumni association.”

The event’s major sponsors include Travis Credit Union, PG&E, Medic Ambulance, AT&T and Touro University California.

More pictures of the event next week!

A Letter to the Campus Community

From Margo Virzera, Art Educator at Vanden High School

Hello Solano Community College,

I am the ceramic art teacher at Vanden High School in Fairfield. I wanted to write you to tell you how excited I am for the partnership that Marc Lancet has started with the college and our high school.

I met Marc last year at the California Conference for the Advancement of Ceramic Art (CCACA). This past Tuesday, Marc came in and did a fabulous demonstration for my students! He did a PowerPoint about his work as well as all the firings done at Solano CC. He then proceeded to do a hand-building demonstration.

Some of my students are graduating this year and going to Solano CC in the fall. I also have some students that currently take classes at Solano CC as high school students. I know this experience that Marc created for my students really got them excited for their future in doing art as well as their future at college.

Pantry Project Update

From February 1st until last week, we dispensed 58 bags. Last week, a total of 26 were given out. We have shared info with the families with the Early Childhood Development program – we expect the number of weekly participants to reach at least 30-35!

Shopping takes place at least once each week – recently we spent $1,475 (saving $1,750).

Human Collective Raising Money for Circle of Friends Charity

Coins for Change

Your help is needed in this fundraising activity led by The Human Collective Club (THC) to support a charity in need.

The Human Collective Club would like to support The Circle of Friends— an agency that provides peer programs that serves adults with mental health conditions, who reside in Solano County.

From February 26th until March 19th 2018, you can help by collecting coins that you see in the streets or simply the ones that you never use, like in the bottom of your car or purse.

You can use your own little Ziplock bag to collect the change; if needed, THC can provide one. Bags can be dropped off at building 900, room 904 at Main Campus, information centers at Vallejo and Vacaville sites as well. Thank you for your support.

For further questions, please email Edue! Salvador at esalvad2@students.solano.edu

Update on Solano's Tennis Teams

Tennis

On Tuesday, February 27, 2018 the Solano Falcons made their way over the Carquinez Strait to face off against Diablo Valley College (DVC). Thea Jimenez and Yasmeen Awad won their singles as Jimenez and Awad paired up for doubles and the Lady Falcons finished the contest victorious with a convincing: 8 to 1 victory

On the men's side, Caspers/Dolan playing Number Two for Solano beat their opposition (8 - 0). In Singles, Solano stood strong against the Viking attack: Reis Vince-Cruz, Joe Caspers, Sean Dolan and Aaron Brumels found a way to win. The Falcon Men emerge out of the contest: 7 lto 2.

Congratulations Falcons, well played!

Women's History Month Events

NEVERTHELESS, SHE PERSISTED

March 6

1-3pm

Main Campus

(Back Half of the Cafeteria)

Film - Eyes on the Prize Discussion about the shift from the Civil Rights Movement to the Black Power Movement

March 6

3-5pm

Main Campus

Fishbowl (rm. 1421)

Film - Anita, Speaking Power to Truth
A film about Anita Hill

March 8

3-5pm

Vallejo Center

Film - Anita, Speaking Power to Truth
A film about Anita Hill

March 15

1-3pm

Main Campus

Film & Discussion-Women's History Month

(Back Half of Cafeteria)

March 20

3-5pm

Main Campus

Fishbowl (rm. 1421)

Film - I'm Carolyn Parker: The Good, the Mad and the Beautiful

About a New Orleans resident and her attempt to help rebuild New Orleans post Katrina

March 22

3-5pm

Vacaville Center

Film - I'm Carolyn Parker: The Good, the Mad and the Beautiful

About a New Orleans resident and her attempt to help rebuild New Orleans post Katrina

March 27

2:30-4:30pm

Main Campus

Room 713

Panel #1 - Women in Academics

March 28

2:30-4:30pm

Main Campus

Room 713

Panel #2 - Professional Women

March 29

3-5pm

Main Campus

Fishbowl (rm. 1421)

Movie - Hidden Figures

Presented by the Student Life Office, ASSC, and History Dept.

Kudos to Custodial Staff

Early last week, SCC President-Superintendent Celia Esposito-Noy had a family member at Vallejo Kaiser hear from a woman complaining about the Kaiser bathrooms. When asked further, the woman told him, "You know who has the cleanest bathrooms? Solano Community College!" He asked her which location and she told him that the Vallejo Center bathrooms were great but she was really impressed with the bathrooms at the Fairfield campus! Her compliments were unsolicited and clearly she is impressed enough to share with a stranger. Great job to all involved.

You're Invited- Free Concert This Wednesday

SCC's Music Department invites you to a free concert this Wednesday, March 7th at 7pm in the SCC Theatre. The concert will feature the SCC Jazz Ensemble, SCC Chamber Choir and special guest, the Vacaville High School Jazz Combo. The Chamber Choir will perform contemporary and gospel songs. The Jazz Ensembles will perform a variety of musical styles by Duke Ellington, Lee Morgan and other great jazz artists.

Sports Schedule...

Softball

Tuesday, March 6 - Contra Costa @ Solano (1 & 3 pm)

Saturday, March 10 - Solano @ West Valley College (12 & 2 pm)

Baseball

Tuesday, March 6- Laney College @ Solano (2pm)

Thursday, March 8- Solano @ College of Marin (2pm)

Saturday, March 10- Los Medanos College @ Solano (1pm)

Solano College | solano.edu | (707) 864-4000

To submit information to Inside Solano, please email kristie.west@solano.edu