Law Scholars Go to CA Supreme Court

On September 5, 2019 the CCPLS (Community College Pathway to Law School) students spent the morning listening to oral arguments before the CA Supreme Court. The group was recognized by Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil Sakawye and heard two cases.

The CCPLS Scholars will prepare and present to their instructors their impressions of the visit and what they gained from it. Many thanks to Rischa Slade and Shirley Lewis for their guidance and support.
