

On Campus Immigration Enforcement Response

Updated October 2025

1

NOTIFY

Notify the College President's Office immediately if you are aware of immigration enforcement activity on campus. President's Office (707) 864-7299. If the President's Office is closed, please contact Public Safety at (707) 580-6526.

2

USE NONCONSENT LANGUAGE

Use nonconsent language such as, "I do not consent to your entry" for non-public areas on campus (classrooms, offices, etc.) Officers cannot enter non-public areas without a warrant.

3

DO NOT DISCLOSE INFORMATION

Do not disclose information such as personal or confidential details about students or employees with anyone.

4

DOCUMENT

Document the interaction as best as you can. We encourage you (and others) to use a phone to record or take notes. Be sure to include time, location, officer's name/credential, and details of officer's request, if known.

5

DO NOT PHYSICALLY INTERFERE

Do not physically interfere even if officers appear to act unlawfully. Maintain a calm and professional demeanor, assert rights verbally, and document everything.
